LEE COUNTY FAIR IS FORGING TO THE FRONT

REPORTS AT ANNUAL MEETING SHOW GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION.

OLD OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

Plans for Coming Year Provide for Erection of New Amphitheatre and Barns.

Amboy, Jan. 16.—Special — The stockholders of the Lee County Fair association are especially jubilant today as the result of the reports made at the annual meeting Monday afternoon, which show that while one of the youngest fairs in this section of the country it is at the top.

The report of the treasurer, W. E. Edwards, shows that the fair is also lute out of debt, and that there is a balance of about $1300 in the treasury. Added to this will be about $1,000 to be received for stock which was sold but is still unpaid for, giving the association a balance of about $2300 with which to work this year.

Old Officers Elected.
The old officers have done so well that they were unanimously re-elected. In fact there was absolutely no talk of opposition and they were all given a vote of thanks in addition. The officers are:

President—W. A. Webber.
Vice President—S. P. McGee.
Treasurer—W. E. Edwards.
Secretary—Wm. Leech.
Directors—W. P. Long, Amboy; John M. Egan Sr., Amboy; John Burke, Amboy; Dr. Petermeyer, Ashton; C. D. Hussey, Franklin Grove; E. L. King, Lee Center; Peter Spreit May township; Chas. F. Welty, Marion; John D. Theiss, Sublette; Amos Bosworth, Dixon, and John W. Banks of Compton.

Following the election S. L. Shaw, P. W. Mason and Frank Hubbell were appointed to audit the books of Treasurer Edwards, and the committee reported them to be in the best of shape.

Plans for Coming Year.
As a result of the excellent showing of the association the directors are hoping to make the Lee County Fair the leading one in northern Illinois this year and will meet to formulate plans for the annual show.

In the meantime arrangements are being made to erect a new amphitheatre of about 5000 seating capacity, a new floral hall and additional stables. All of these buildings will be erected this summer and will be in readiness for the fall show, together with the new track, which will be completed early in the spring and on which horses will be worked all summer.

UP FOR MURDER; SLEEPS

Defendant Slumbers While His Mother-in-Law Testifies Against Him.

Noblesville, Ind., Jan. 16.—While his mother-in-law was telling in court her story of how he had murdered his wife Harry Hiatt dropped asleep in the prisoner's box here. The witness, Mrs. Albert Voss, said Hiatt, who had been separated from his wife, came to the Voss farm, took his baby in his arms, walked into the barnyard, where Mrs. Hiatt was, and fired three bullets into her body.

BREWING COMPANY

ELECTS OFFICERS.
The annual meeting of the Dixon Brewing company was held yesterday afternoon, when the officers were elected and President George Schorr submitted his annual report, which was audited and approved. The stockholders elected the following directors: George Schorr, E. L. Ketchel, J. J. Joliet, W. E. Flanagan, Thomas Watson and Jacob Wolf.

ASHES ON STREET

MAKE POOR SLEIGHING.
Drivers of wagons are complaining that thoughtless persons have been making trouble for them by throwing ashes in the public highway. The majority of the vehicles are on runners now and a pile of ashes is a poor thing to pull a sled through. The commissioners state that they will investigate and put a stop to the nuisance.

HUNTINGTON WILSON.

Huntington Wilson of Chicago, as assistant secretary of state, is being discussed as a possibility for the position of ambassador to France, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Bacon. Mr. Wilson is thirty-six years old and entered the diplomatic service during President McKinley's administration.

COUNCIL MEETING OF BRIEF DURATION

BURT RAYMOND EXAMINES THE BOOKS OF DIXON WATER COMPANY.

The city commissioners, three of them, met last night in regular meeting. The roll call showed Mayor Brinton and Commissioner Schuler absent. After the roll call and minutes of the previous meeting had been read, Commissioner Schmidt, who was acting mayor, reported that he had appointed Burt Raymond to look over the Dixon Water company's books for the city, and that Mr. Raymond had not completed his investigation. He then asked if there were any motions and Commissioner Gannon said "I move to adjourn," and the commissioners filed out of the council rooms before they had fairly warmed up their chairs.

DRENNER VS. PARSONS CASE IN COUNTY COURT

The Drenner vs. Parsons case, which started yesterday afternoon in the Lee county circuit court, occupied the attention of the court all day today. It is very probable the case will be finished by evening.

MISS CLARA YOUNG CLAIMED BY DEATH

HER PASSING BRINGS SORROW TO MANY HOMES IN DIXON.

Miss Clara M. Young died last evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. D. E. Raymond, 706 North Crawford avenue, where she has been ill for the past six weeks.

Two sisters besides Mrs. Raymond survive. They are Mrs. Bartlett and Miss Marcia Young.

The family came to Dixon several years ago from Morrison and since that time Miss Young has devoted a portion of her time to teaching music. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Eastern Star and was a most estimable young lady, whose death brings sorrow to many homes.

Dr. Cryor will conduct the services on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will take place in Oakwood.

24 CHILDREN IN NACHUSA ORPHANAGE

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE IN SESSION TODAY HEARS GOOD REPORTS.

The executive committee of the board of directors of the Nachusa Lutheran Orphanage held a business session in the parlors of St. Paul's Lutheran church in this city today. A feature of the session was the very gratifying reports of the conditions of the home, which is located five miles east of this city.

There are 24 children now in the home, and their comfortable accommodation is made possible by the addition to the home which was constructed last summer. Reports were also made of many generous gifts of garments sent by several churches for the use of the children.

Members of the board present at the meeting today were Rev. J. F. Leamer of Clinton, Ia., president; Rev. J. A. McCullough, Burlington, Ia., secretary; Rev. E. C. Harris, of Sterling, treasurer; Rev. Keller of Polo; Rev. Lederer of Chicago and Rev. Wirick, superintendent of the home.

URIAH STROUP GIVEN PENSION INCREASE

RECEIVES WELCOME NOTICE OF FACT FROM CONGRESSMAN MCKENZIE.

Uriah Stroup of this city yesterday received notice from Congressman McKenzie that his application for an increase in pension had been granted to be effective June 1, 1911. Mr. Stroup's increase therefore gives him back money for eight months. Mr. Stroup's application for an increase made some time ago, resulted in a slight controversy, due to the Dixon man being confused with another man of the same name who enlisted in the army a year before Mr. Stroup did.

TWO SONS IN BUSINESS WITH THEO. J. MILLER

Notice of the granting of articles of incorporation by the secretary of state to Theo. J. Miller & Sons of this city was published in this paper last evening, the names of the incorporators only being given as they had been presented to the secretary of state. Mr. Miller has associated with him his sons, Ray Miller and Guy G. Miller. The new firm succeeds the oldest music house in this part of the state, and there is every reason to believe that the large business conducted by the firm will continue to grow under the new arrangement.

PREPARING TO MOVE TO GREEN BAY, WIS.

A. J. Wenkle, formerly auditor of the S. D. & E. and the Lee County Lighting company, and now of Green Bay, Wis., is here to make arrangements for moving his family to that city.

EDITORIAL.

WHEN IS LENIENCY DUE?

With the termination of the Webster trial and the casting aside of all doubt of the guilt of the prisoner by his confession, the enormity of the crime of this young man is coming home more forcibly to the public conscience. The details of the confession with some misstatements corrected by the testimony of reliable witnesses are conclusive to the average mind that Henry Elgin Webster deliberately took the life of his trusting wife to further his selfish interests. He married her to protect himself, not her, and he brutally killed her to protect himself. Before completing his studies in Chicago he was affianced to Miss Varney. He made it convenient for her to remain in Iowa after he married her, and for his own selfish pleasure lived with Bessie Kent in Chicago. He had mental capacity enough to know that only trouble could come from his manner of life, and when confronted with the inevitable result of losing his diploma or committing another crime through a bigamous marriage, his choice was to continue breaking the moral law as well as the state law for his own selfish interests. Still further entangled, he is yet not ready to call a halt in his pathway of crime, confess his wrong and manfully pay the penalty which continues to grow severer as he adds crime upon crime in increasing magnitude. He sought to divorce his bigamous wife by defaming her character, a girl whom his attorney now says was not deserving of the name with which he would brand her to save himself. Defeated here, and rather than pay the penalty for his own misdeeds, he seeks to shield himself by committing the greatest crime under the laws of God or man, and the evidence shows it was most brutally accomplished. What shall the harvest be? Here is a man of education and grown to manhood with the advantages of a good home. There is no question of his knowledge of right and wrong. When such a man chooses to do wrong is his sin not greater than one brought up under adverse circumstances? The state in its prosecution has seen fit not to ask the death penalty of the man who committed this most terrible crime as the climax of a succession of crimes. There are strong arguments against the infliction of capital punishment and there is justice in such arguments, but the separation of this man from association with his fellows for the remainder of his life would seem to the minds of many as small enough punishment for the enormity of the crime. There were several stages in his career when he had a choice of two roads. It is not for him to seek leniency now if sober judgment declares he has earned a life sentence, there should be no appeal from such judgment.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS ARE TO DEBATE

SAVANNA STUDENTS COME TO DIXON FRIDAY TO MEET LOCAL DEBATERS

The debating teams of the Dixon and Savanna high schools will meet at the Dixon high school auditorium Friday evening at 8 o'clock and debate on the question: Resolved, that as far as Illinois and Wisconsin are concerned, women should be granted equal suffrage with men. The local team is strong and an interesting argument is expected.

NACHUSA LUTHERAN ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Nachusa Lutheran church will be held on Wednesday evening, Jan. 17th, at 7:30 o'clock. All the members are urged to be present and a cordial invitation is extended to the public. BASKERVILLE WILL GO TO NEBRASKA

EFFICIENT ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DIXON "Y" IS ADVANCED.

APPOINTED FIELD SECRETARY

Church Bowling Team in Contest—Glee Club Is to Be Organized.

W. E. Baskerville, who since early fall has been assistant secretary at the Dixon Y. M. C. A., has resigned his position here and will leave tomorrow for Omaha, where he has accepted a place as field secretary for the Nebraska State Y. M. C. A. committee. His resignation was presented to the board of directors of the association yesterday afternoon, who accepted it and at the same time passed a set of resolutions thanking him for his excellent work here and expressing their wishes for his continued success in his new field.

Mr. Baskerville came to the local association with the other new officers about Aug. 1. He has been very active in the progressive work that has been carried on here since that time, and all the members of the association and his many friends will be sorry to learn of his intended departure. The promotion, however, is one in which they will all unite in feeling pride. The new field will give him much more room for progress and great success is predicted for him.

Christians Win Another.

The Christian church bowling team took another game last evening at the association alleys, winning from the Evangelical team with 389 pins to spare, the totals being 2198 and 1809. This is the first game for the Evangelicals, but they are not discouraged, inasmuch as there are three games to be played between each of the teams. This evening the Lutherans and Methodists will meet.

Bible Class at College.

This evening Secretary Bailey will organize a bible class at the Dixon college for the students there. The subject to be taken up is the Historical Old Testament.

To Organize Glee Club.

Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a meeting of young men of the city, whether members of the association or not, who desire to organize a glee club. The meeting will be held in the association parlors, and an invitation is extended to all young men who are so interested to attend.

INSURANCE MEN TO BE HERE FRIDAY

ALL POLICY HOLDERS OF NORTH WESTERN MUTUAL INVITED TO RECEPTION.

Arrangements are perfected for the convention of agents of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, to be held at the Dixon Inn next Friday.

A feature of the convention of special interest to the public will be the reception in the afternoon for the Lee county policy holders, which will be held from 3 to 4 o'clock.

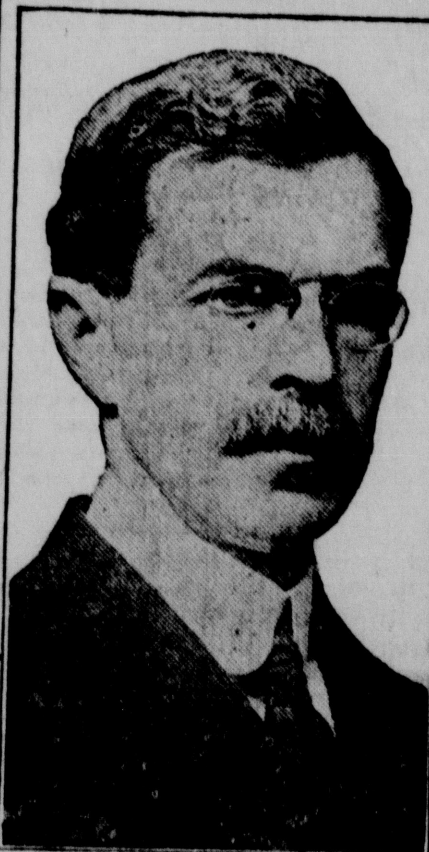

Among the well known men expected are Senator H. S. Magill of Princeton, who is a candidate for U. S. senator; H. U. Bailey, editor of the Bureau County Republican; Postmaster Palmer E. Anderson of Princeton, secretary of the American Swedish Republican League, and Rev. D. Baird Evans of Princeton. Several officials of the company are also expected from the home office in Milwaukee.

About 35 guests of the company, representing the counties in northern Illinois, the district over which H. A. Clark presides as general agent, will be present for a business session at 11:30 a. m. At 1 p. m. Mr. Clark will give a luncheon at the hotel for the agents, to be followed by a reception and the visiting agents will be shown about the city.

This gathering will be of considerable importance, drawing as it will people from all over this part of the state, and it is hoped that all of the policy holders of the company in this vicinity will be present.

GROOMING BIRDS FOR CHICKEN SHOW

GREAT POULTRY EXHIBIT WILL BE OPENED ONE WEEK FROM TODAY.

One week from today, Jan. 23, will occur the opening of the annual poultry show, to be held under the auspices of the Dixon association, the same being held at Kosbrook hall. With favorable weather it promises to be one of the largest exhibits of thoroughbred fowls ever held in this locality.

The week previous to sending the birds to the show room is a busy one for the poultry fancier, in order to get his birds in proper condition. The poultry industry is now conducted along lines that are scientific and it requires study to learn the finer points. After the fancier picks the birds he is to enter in the show, the first step necessary is to wash them, great care being taken to dry the feathers; if white, bleach and use blueing water or peroxide, and possibly sprinkle with corn starch, to keep the dust out. The legs are scrubbed and then a solution of whisky and sweet oil is applied to legs and face. In case the bird has puffery lobes or short wattles these may be improved by gently stretching. All want their birds to look best.

MRS. W. H. GILLESPIE DROPPED DEAD WHILE ANSWERING HUSBAND'S CALL.

HURRYING HOME HE FOUND HER

Was a Member of Local Lodges and Her Death Is Shock to Friends.

The many friends of Mrs. Esther C. Gillespie of 711 Nachusa avenue were shocked today to learn of her sudden death, which occurred some time this forenoon while she was at home alone.

Her husband, W. H. Gillespie, is janitor at the Odd Fellows building and during the present cold weather has frequently remained in the building over night to see that the fires were kept burning freely. He was there last night and telephoned to his wife at 10:30 in the evening and conversed with her, and she was all right at that time. This morning he called her again at 9 o'clock, but got no response. He hurried home to see what was the matter and had to break the door to get in. On the floor near the telephone he found his wife out cold but not aroused her. He called in some of the neighbors and they in turn summoned Dr. Robbins. The physician arrived in a very few minutes and found upon examination that Mrs. Gillespie was dead and had probably died while going to answer her husband's telephone call, a short time before he came home.

The physician investigated and found that one of the gas burners in the front room was only half turned off and that there was considerable gas in the room. It is presumed that the effect of the gas and a weak heart caused her death. The coroner has been called to make an examination.

Mrs. Gillespie was a member of Rebekah lodge, the Eastern Star, the Woman's Relief Corps, the Court of Honor and the Pocahontas lodge. It is presumed that the Rebekah lodge will conduct the funeral services. She has a son in Bloomington, who has been notified. Mr. Gillespie is a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and has been an employee of the Illinois Central for many years, first entering the employ of the company before the civil war.

GOES TO JAIL FOR HIS MISDOINGS

MEANWHILE COUNTY MUST CARE FOR FAMILY OF ELLI GHEISA.

Ell Gheisa, the foreigner who was arrested in Chicago last week charged with selling mortgaged property, was arraigned before Judge Scott in the county court this morning and through his attorney, John Devine, who was appointed by the court, entered a plea of guilty to the charge. Inasmuch as the value of the mortgaged property which Gheisa sold was but $50, and further that the defendant is the father of two small children, the court fined him but $20 and costs, the total amounting to about $65. Gheisa will stand committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

It is probable, however, unless the woman can raise the money some way, that the county will be forced to take care of her and the children while Gheisa is in jail. The children are not properly clothed for such cold weather and the supervisor will probably have to make some provision for their care.

JULIUS LLOYD IS AMONG THE OZARKS

A card from Julius Lloyd states that he is having a good time and enjoying a trip among the Ozark mountains in Missouri. A man just came into the train he says, and said he just hung a jury. The weather is unusually cold for this section. Mr. Lloyd is about to take a ten mile stage ride over the Ozarks.

DEMENTTOWN

It looks very much as if the b. d. a. m. with the startling announcement of the old wave is broken.

Therefore, who can say they have no cause for thanks.

A Chattanooga dispatch says that robins have been made drunk by eating china berries. After that news has spread about a bit it is a certainty there won't be any berries left for the poor birds.

And the publication of the news in this col. may result in some expeditions of exploration in the neighboring woods. However, we have never heard of those kind of berries in this neck of the woods.

Acting under the belief that economy is a great virtue, some men are just as economical with their wives' allowances as possible.

The Carnegie commission has only found 329 heroes for 1911. It's evident they don't count the many men who have hooked their wives' dresses up the back.

That foreign war is a good thing. It will keep a lot of those "terrible Turks" at home to fight instead of coming over here and pretending to be wrestlers.

A Des Moines restaurant man has been arrested and tried for cooking onions to the discomfort of his neighbors. He was probably convicted on very strong evidence.

A gold electric fan has been presented to Queen Mary with which to dry her hair. Why don't she hang it out on the line to dry like ordinary women do?

Dope This Out.

A man in Luther, Mich., met a widow and married her. She had a step daughter. The wife thus became the mother-in-law of her father-in-law and the step daughter became his step mother. His own father was therefore his step son. After awhile his step mother, who was likewise the step daughter of his wife, had a son. The boy became the man's brother, being the Luther man's father's son, but the boy is also the son of his wife's step son and so her grand son. Thus the man became his brother's grandfather. Then the man's wife had a daughter. His mother-in-law thus became the new daughter's step sister, and also his grandmother. The father is the brother of his daughter, who is also the daughter of his grandmother. The man is his mother's brother-in-law, his daughter is his father's niece and he has finally figured it out that he is his own grandfather.

Is it too much to pay $500 for a team of horses and then spend $15 more to have your investment insured? Of course not, for if the team is worth $500 they are worth a little more to be sure of not losing their value. Insure today with Oliver L. Gehant at the bank, who is representative of the National Live Stock Ins. Co., best in the world.

He fell in the water up to his neck and still did not get much of the wet upon his clothing. He had on a big fur overcoat at the time which shed the water excellently and which was very lucky for him. He however got one shoe full and had to hunt up a place to change clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Gehant moved into their new home on Friday and Saturday. In consequence the office had to suffer and our News letter also but we hope to be excused this time with a promise never to let it happen again. At least we hope we will not be obliged to move any more for it does not appeal to our constitution in a very charming manner.

The weather was fiercely cold but we did not stop for such a trifling thing as that, for it seemed trifling when we think of all the setbacks we have had to contend with since last summer when we started to build. The exterior of the dwelling is not finished yet, but we must let it go as it is until summer weather is with us once more. Again we ask you to excuse this brief letter and look for better in next issue.

Mother En Route East to Reclaim Lost Girl.

Will Entreat Her to Return to Chicago—Detective Goes to Gotham to Investigate Waiter.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—Prepared to make every concession for the future happiness of her adopted daughter, Violet Buehler, whose strange disappearance from Chicago on November 26 was a mystery until she was found yesterday in New York, Mrs. Herman Buehler left for that city today.

"I am overjoyed to know that Violet has been found," Mrs. Buehler said just before her departure. "I am going to her to assure her that all I can do for her future happiness will be done."

Following a conference with Inspector Nicholas Hunt, Mrs. Buehler decided that she would entreat the girl to return to Chicago. This course was suggested by the police official when he was informed that Violet had been adopted legally by Mrs. Buehler. Detective Norton accompanied her to New York.

The detective, according to Inspector Hunt, will investigate the girl's relations with John C. Clewne, a Chicago waiter, and if the developments warrant it the waiter also will be brought to Chicago.

New York, Jan. 16.—Violet Buehler has been arrested and taken to the children's court, where John Clane, or Clewne, the waiter, appeared. Passing through the corridor of the court building, Miss Buehler saw Clewne. She ran to him and threw her arms around his neck.

Clewne was ordered held by the Chicago police. He said he had nothing to fear, and that he was willing to appear in the children's court.

SEES DYNAMITE CODE

Jury Hears "Ping" Letters Indicating Things to Destroy.

Facts Given by McManigal—Reveals Another Besides McNamara as Leader in Wrecking Plots.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 16.—Telegrams and letters signed "Ping," purporting to contain a code giving instructions about viaducts, bridges and buildings that were to be blown up, were read before the federal grand jury here in connection with Ortie McManigal's confession regarding the dynamite conspiracy.

This signature, according to McManigal, was not that of the McNamaras, but was used by another person whom he named. McManigal said in response to a telegram from "Ping" he went to Cleveland in June, 1910, and there blew up a viaduct, for which "Ping" paid him $125 in Toledo. McManigal's movements in Pittsburg and his arrangement to have a supply of nitroglycerin stored in an old shop at Rochester, Pa., also were arranged by "Ping."

Because of his belief that "Ping" was receiving $200 for each "job," and was giving him only $125, McManigal says he refused to work with him, and later arranged through John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Workers, to do "jobs" with the aid of James B. McNamara.

SIMILAR STATE BILLS GOOD

Measure Does Not Regulate Intrastate Commerce, Says Justice Vandevanter, Reading Opinion—Hatters Again Lose Case.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Constitutionality of the employers' liability law by congress in 1908 was upheld here by the Supreme court of the United States in all cases before it. The court also decided that state courts may enforce that act when local laws are appropriate.

Second Attempt Is Successful. This was the second and a successful attempt of congress to change the old common law rule that an employee of a common carrier could not recover damages from the carrier for injuries received in his employment when the injuries resulted from the negligence of a fellow servant. The first law, that enacted in 1906, was declared unconstitutional in 1908, because it embraced within its terms a regulation of intrastate as well as interstate commerce.

Judge Vandevanter announced the opinion. The decision was unanimous and a complete victory for the government on every point. The case had been under advisement since last February.

Says Congress Has the Right. Justice Vandevanter declared that congress had the right to regulate the relation of interstate railroads to their employees. Congress had not gone beyond its power by abrogating the common-law rule that an employer was not liable for the injuries resulting to employees from the negligence of fellow servants.

"No one had a vested property right in the common law," said the justice.

He found that the present law did not regulate intrastate commerce and therefore was not objectionable on that ground. No objection was found in the fact that the act did away with the doctrine of "assumption of risk" by employees and restricted the doctrine of "contributory negligence."

Hatters Again Lose Case.

The Supreme court declined to review the action of the United States circuit court of appeals at New York, which ordered a new trial in the famous Danbury hatter's case. The trial court held members of the United Hatters of North America liable for $230,000 damages under the Sherman anti-trust law for an alleged boycott of two Danbury (Conn.) hat manufacturers.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

WHAT Is Your Disease?

DR. R. S. PIPER

Will Be At Hotel Nachusa, Dixon

FRIDAY, JAN. 19th

Office Hours--8:3 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Why You Should Come

Many have asked Dr. Piper, how it is that he can cure chronic diseases that the general practitioner can do nothing with. The general answer is: Dr. Piper has devoted his life to the study of Chronic Diseases. He devotes all of his time to his given specialty. He does nothing but office work. Instead of having one office with a practice limited to a radius of a few miles, he has a number of offices, and his practice covers hundreds of miles. He advertises for the difficult and baffling cases that have been seeking relief sometimes for years, many of which come to him and find health and happiness, through the aid of his diagnostic methods and deep acting blood purifying medicine. His advice is always welcome to you. YOU PLACE YOURSELF UNDER NO OBLIGATION WHEN YOU CALL. Come at once and consult the doctor next time may be too late. Many of you who have been taking medicine and so called treatments for months will be absolutely cured in a few weeks. Very chronic cases will require somewhat longer time, but it will make no difference; you will be treated free, remedies excepted, until you can say, "I AM CURED."

Are your lungs or bronchial tubes weak? Do you cough and expectorate diseased mucus? Does your nose stop up? Is your breath offensive? Have you a bad taste in your mouth? Have you pains in your chest? Are you bothered with shortness of breath and weak spells? Do you have trouble with hawking nose into your throat? Call and have the doctor examine you. There is no need for you to have Catarrh. It often leads to that dreaded disease that is killing thousands of our best people—Consumption. Dr. Piper's treatment can be used in your home daily. No need of expensive office treatments.

Chronic Stomach Trouble

You are irritable in disposition, easily angered. You have plenty of ideas, but never carry any of them out. You are always tired. You have to force yourself to accomplish anything. You become blue and despondent and have many other symptoms which you know only too well. These are the mental symptoms of a deranged stomach. Other symptoms are: Bloating, Belching of gas, sour or Diarrhoea, Unhealthy complexion, Changeable appetite, and Constipation or point to a deranged digestion. If you have any of these symptoms, lose no time. Dr. R. S. Piper's deep-acting remedies will cure you, no matter how many doctors have failed. His specialty is the curing of deep, aggravated chronic diseases. His motto is PAY HIM HIS FEE WHEN CURED.

Are you beginning to become weak and stiffened in your joints? Are your muscles and ligaments contracted? Do you have headaches? Is your tongue coated and your breath bad? Is your urine high colored and offensive? Do you have palpitation of your heart? Do not delay one day longer than you have to, but consult the master specialist, who will tell you what can be done for you. If there are no structural changes, your case is probably curable.

Lost Vitality

Have you never recovered from an old illness? Are you despondent, blue and melancholy over your condition? Do you have spells or fits? Are you becoming anxious and fearful of the future? Are you troubled with nervousness and trembling all over your limbs? Do you have a feeling of coldness in the morning? Is your memory failing you? Let Dr. Piper build you up to your former condition as he has done to many suffering likewise.

Are you suffering from early abuses, lost vital power, losses and drains, backache, weak back, shooting pains in the neck, chest, back and limbs, palpitation of the heart, restlessness, nervousness, loss of vitality, loss of ambition and mental activity, nervousness, how chronic your trouble may be or how many have treated you, consult the master specialist, Dr. R. S. Piper. He cures 99% of all these cases that appeal to him. His medicines are quick acting and curative. Don't let false modesty keep you away. These diseases are not as legitimate a branch of medicine as any disease of the stomach, etc. Be a man amongst men before it is too late!

TROOPS CURB RIOT WITH BAYONETS

Lawrence Police Charge, Fire and Turn On Hose Without Effect.

30,000 MILL HANDS ARE IDLE

Seven Infantry Companies, Battery of Artillery and Policemen From Other Cities on Strike Duty in Massachusetts Town.

Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 16.—Seven companies of infantry, Battery C, Light Artillery, of the militia, and all the police reserves obtainable, were called out here to quell rioting by striking operatives and their sympathizers at the textile mills in this city. Additional policemen were summoned from Boston, Lynn, Lowell, Haverhill, Salem and other near-by cities.

The number of idle hands is estimated at 30,000, and most of the local factories have been closed. Thirty or more arrests have been made. The trouble is due to a reduction in wages, necessitated, the mill owners say, by a cut in the running time from 56 to 54 hours a week, compelled by the new state law, which became effective January 1. The law applies to factories where women and children are employed.

Dozen or More Are Injured

A dozen or more operatives were injured, but none seriously, in raids early in the day on plants where there was evidence of a purpose to continue work. Crowds in the streets increased in numbers as the day advanced, and clashes with the police became so frequent and menacing that the guardsmen were ordered from the armory to control the turbulent foreign strikers.

The first rioting began with an attempt by the strikers to rush the doors of the Wood worsted mills and the Prospect woolen mills. The attempts at both places were repulsed by the police, who used their clubs freely.

Another crowd of over a thousand gathered at the Washington mills, where they had several minor skirmishes with the police. A heavy snow-

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

storm apparently quieted the men, and most of them dispersed.

Charge, Fire and Turn On Hose

At the Pacific cotton mills a body of strike sympathizers had worked themselves into a fighting mood and had just emerged from an assault on the mill gates when the Washington mill crowd arrived. Soon all was in an uproar.

The mob rided coal cars on a sliding, and, seizing the chunks of coal, bombarded the windows of the Pacific weave. Six operatives inside were hurt, but none seriously.

The police then charged the mob and fired in the air. The shots did not scare the strikers, and orders were then given to turn on the water in the mill hose. At this time militia men under Captain Randlett appeared, and the riot act was read.

Captain Randlett's orders to the crowd to disperse were not immediately obeyed, and he ordered his half hundred soldiers to charge with bayonets set. During the charge many of the bayonets were pressed against the crowd, but the militia were careful not to inflict wounds. Two rioters were hurt, but not seriously.

O. H. MARTIN & CO
LADIES MISSES AND CHILDRENS OUTFITTERS

My Lady of the North

I Quickly Flung Up My Arm to Ward Off a Second Blow.

trace his beat. But there was no noise, not even the sound of his footsteps, reaching us. Even as I gazed, lying open at full length upon my horse, we had crossed the open, and a perfect tangle of low bushes hid us as completely as if we had entered the yawning mouth of a cavern.

A hundred yards or more of sharply curving road densely lined with shrubbery on either hand, and then Craig swung into saddle and again gave spur to his horse.

"We must ride for it now," he said, tersely. "When that patrol makes their round, then fellers will be after us hot."

I urged my tired horse to a gallop, pressing upon Craig's heels as closely as I dared; nor did I glance back, for I knew well that a dead picket was lying somewhere by the cross-roads, and that his comrades would be heard from before dawn. We were moving bravely now; for the road under foot grew better as we advanced, and gave back the dull thud of soft earth instead of the rattling clang of the rocks we had been so long accustomed to. Then, suddenly, my horse was jerked almost to a standstill, the hand upon his bit seemingly as hard as my own, and I wheeled in the saddle, pressing my knees tightly to prevent the woman tugging desperately at the lines.

"What now?" I asked sharply, and in sudden anger I forced her to release her grasp. "We must ride, and ride hard, madam, to be out of this cordon by daylight."

"Ride where?" she asked, and there was a slight sting in her voice, I felt.

"Where?" I repeated, then partially gathering my scattered wits: "Why, to the camp we are seeking, of course."

I was conscious that her eyes were striving anxiously to see my face in the darkness—that her suspicions were now fully aroused; yet her quick retort surprised me.

"You lie!" she said, coldly. "That was a Federal picket he killed."

It was no time for argument, and I knew it. Craig, noting our pause, had ridden back, and reined in beside us without a word.

"You are right," I said, tersely. "In one sense of the word you are a prisoner, for the time being, at least, but not through any wish of mine. We do not make war on women, and your being in this situation is altogether an accident. However, be that as it may, we must, first of all, protect ourselves. I would very gladly leave you with your friends, if possible, but as things have shaped themselves there remains but one alternative—you must ride as I order."

"You—you are not Major Brennan's friend then? You were not sent by Frank to meet me?" The questions burst from her lips so rapidly that I scarcely caught their import.

"I am Captain Phillip Wayne, with Virginia cavalry, at your service, madam," I said, calmly, "and to the best of my knowledge I have not the pleasure of Major Brennan's acquaintance."

She suddenly lifted the heavy riding whip that was clenched in her right hand, struck me with it full across the face, and then, as I quickly flung up my own arm to ward off a second blow, she sent the lash swirling down upon the flank of her horse. With one bound the maddened animal wrenched the reins from out my hands, nearly dragging me from the saddle, and swerving sharply to the left. There was a shock, a smothered oath, a moment's fierce struggle in the darkness, the sharp ping of the whip as it came down once, twice—then silence, broken only by deep breathing.

"I've got her, captain," chuckled the sergeant, softly, "but dog-gone if I know what to do with her."

There was small sentiment of mercy in my heart as I drew up toward them, for my cheek burned where the lash had struck as though scorched with fire; but when I saw her leaning helplessly forward on her horse's neck, all bravado gone, her hands pinioned behind her in the iron grasp of the sergeant, my fierce resentment died away within me.

"Let her hands go, Craig," I commanded, briefly.

She lifted her body slightly from its cramped, uncomfortable posture, but her head remained bowed.

"Madam," I spoke sternly, for moments were of value now—"listen to what I say. We are Confederate soldiers passing through the Federal lines with dispatches. In order to save ourselves from discovery and capture we were compelled to take you in charge. It was the fortune of me a most unpleasant duty. You may ride on, sergeant; this lady and I will follow, as before."

She scarcely changed her posture as I spurred forward, riding now to close to her side that I could feel the flap of her saddle rise and fall against my knee. Whatever of evil she may have thought of us, I felt that she was sorry enough now for her hasty action, and I forgot the pain that yet stung me, and longed, without well knowing how, to tell her so.

12 DIE IN BIG FIRE

Famous Revere House of Boston Burns—70 Missing.

Over 300 Guests in Building When Conflagration Starts—Taken Out in Nightclothes.

Boston, Jan. 16.—The Revere house, one of the oldest hotels of the city, was practically destroyed by fire this morning. Over ten guests are known to be dead and seventy are missing. Over 300 were in the hotel at the time the conflagration started. These were taken from burning buildings by firemen, policemen and citizens generally. A general alarm summoned the available fire fighting force of city. The guests were taken from the windows of the burning structure in their nightclothes and suffered much from the intense cold.

Thousands of people lined the streets near the hotel and every possible help was given the unfortunate guests.

It is believed that twelve lives were lost. Of the seventy missing hopes are entertained that they will be found safe and sound in the immediate neighborhood.

Remember a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10 cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have back ache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

praise of Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago. The cure they effected at that time has been permanent. This remedy was used in my family and it brought relief from a dull, heavy ache through the back and trouble with the kidney secretions. I have seen what Doan's Kidney Pills will do and I am always ready to say a word in their praise."

TAFT CONFERS WITH HITCHCOCK

Declaration for Government
Control of Telegraph Lines Is Discussed.

WHITE HOUSE STATEMENT

Two United States Senators Express
Views Favorable to Plan—Official
Washington Much Perturbed
Over Pronouncement.

Washington, Jan. 16.—It is pretty generally believed in Washington that President Taft is not overpleased at the statement put out by Postmaster General Hitchcock in favor of immediate legislation to transfer the telegraph lines of the country to the care and ownership of the government. It is considered extraordinary that Mr.
Hitchcock should have allowed his recommendation to be made public before he had consulted his chief in the matter.

Statement From White House.
Mr. Hitchcock was called into conference by Mr. Taft and after a talk lasting more than an hour the following statement was given out at the White House:

"A recommendation by the postmaster general that it would be well for the government to buy the telegraph lines and incorporate them in the post office system appeared in an earlier annual report submitted by him to the president.

"After some discussion, it was decided, at the suggestion of the president, to postpone reference to the matter to another year and not to bring it forward then, because of the recommendation of many other important changes, including the postal savings bank and the parcels post. These, if adopted, would take up all the energy of the post office department in making the necessary changes.

"The postmaster general intended to bring this matter to the attention of the president before the publication in advance of this part of his report.
After having made preparations for publication he was suddenly called out of town without having done so.

"His conclusion as to the wisdom of taking over the telegraph lines had been reached only after full investigation and consideration. As the report containing the recommendation has not yet been submitted to the president, it has not yet been considered by him or by the cabinet with a view to presenting it to congress as an administration measure."

Senators for Federal Wires.
Another interesting development of the day came in declarations of Senators Cullom of Illinois and Smith of Michigan in favor of the postmaster general's plan.

"On the theory that the telegraph is a part of the mails," Mr. Cullom said.
"It seems to me that it would not be out of place for the government to own the telegraph lines."

"I have steadfastly opposed the government ownership of the public utilities for many years," said Senator Smith, "but as a natural appurtenance to the postal system, I have felt that the telegraph could be more appropriately operated by the government than any other branch of individual business."

The pronouncement in favor of federal operation of the wire lines as an adjunct of the post office department stirred official Washington as few administrative acts have in recent years.

The postmaster general's statement was news to the White House, and is said to have caused the greatest surprise there. This was evident when efforts were made to recall the announcement.

is not a seat in the negro section.
